About us

Welcome to the heart of Vienna, where you've come to the right place for culinary delights. We're a restaurant with a truly funny story behind its name – but more importantly, we're known for serving sophisticated Austrian cuisine with great finesse and the highest quality standards.

You can rely on us for two things: Seasonal and regional specialities, prepared by our kitchen team with fresh, organic and, wherever possible, local ingredients. And a chef who attaches great importance to serving you the classics in a contemporary way. Historic doesn't have to mean old-fashioned.

Historic doesn't have to mean old-fashioned. As a traditional restaurant, as we undoubtedly are, we see no contradiction with modern Viennese cuisine. For us, it goes without saying that the ingredients for our dishes mostly come from farms that work with natural methods. Our stance is that the Weiße Rauchfangkehrer has a proverbial clean slate when it comes to procuring food. One of the reasons we buy from sustainable companies is because the product quality is unrivalled – you can really taste it.

There are many exciting things to tell you about our history. Our restaurant was founded in 1848 and is one of the most traditional restaurants in Vienna. Incidentally, it was also Franz Sacher's first restaurant, which is why we're still closely linked to Sacher today. Sacher hotel guests like to come and find us, and the legendary original Sacher Torte is a must on our dessert menu.

And there's the mystery of how our restaurant got its funny name. Well, it was once the guild tavern of the old Viennese chimney sweeps, but one chimney sweep in particular made a significant contribution to it. He was by no means a picky eater – he was a gourmet, which suits us perfectly. Secondly, he'd also taken a shine to the baker next door. And thirdly, he may have occasionally drunk a bit too much and then slept it off in a flour trough in the cellar of the house next door. He came into the restaurant the next morning covered in white flour and the rest was history...

*Your well being is our desire.
Your praise is our incentive.
Your criticism encourages us to do better.*
